I understand that grant funds awarded to the teacher sponsor(s) in the Nell Propst Northeast Colorado History contest must be used to enhance the classroom experience for the classes that the sponsor teaches. This may include field trips for students (example: historical areas or museums) or for the purchase of equipment and/or supplies for the classrooms(s). In the event that the teacher(s) leave the district, any equipment and/or supplies purchased with grant funds will remain property of the school district. The exception is textbooks, which may accompany the teacher(s) should he/she leave the district. Home-school sponsors must donate awarded funds to a school, library or museum of their choice.
